

Appointment of Adeline Sim as Chairman of Lifelong Learning Institute & to the Singapore Business Federation Jobs and Skills Advisory Committee

The Board of Directors of HRnetGroup Limited (the Company and together with its subsidiaries, the Group) is pleased to announce that Adeline Sim (Adeline), Executive Director and the Chief Corporate Officer of the Group, has been appointed by:

a. The Ministry of Education as Chairman of the Lifelong Learning Institute (LLI) Board. Launched in 2013, LLI is a Continuing Education and Training (CET) campus by SkillsFuture Singapore. The vibrant adult-learning campus serves as a gateway for in-demand skills training and professional upgrading programmes. It supports:

- the Singapore workforce in their progression and capability development needs;
- employers to address their manpower needs; and
- CET providers to deliver best-in-class training programmes

b. The Singapore Business Federation (SBF) as a member of the Jobs and Skills Advisory Committee (JSAC) which has responsibilities to:

- steer and provide strategic oversight of the suite of jobs and skills related initiatives undertaken by SBF to help companies develop the human capital required for transformation and growth;
- champion sustainable, inclusive, and productive employment and bring network and professional resources to rally more companies to come on board; and
- provide insights and intelligence to shape SBF's policy positions on manpower related issues.

“Given the fact that we live and breathe talent acquisition and management, we are delighted that Adeline is contributing to the wider conversation regarding jobs and skills in our home market Singapore.”
